TRADE MARK

Park at Waialua—Island of Oahu. About thirty miles northwest from Honolulu, and reached by the Oahu Railroad, is the attractive town of Waialua. It has a beautiful park, containing a great variety of trees and shrubs, artistically laid out with rustic bridges and other ornamentation. The country around is fertile and abounds in fields of rice and sugar and taro patches. As far back as 1890, Waialua had a school with a department for manual training.
